

California Mennonite Historical Society

Lecture Series & Annual Meeting

March 27-29, 2014

Fresno Pacific University

“Mennonites in the Soviet Union”

Dr. Andrej Savin

Dr. Andrej Savin is a Senior Researcher with the Institute of History, Siberian Branch of the Russian Academy of Sciences. He holds a Ph.D. in history from Novosibirsk State University. He has published extensively on the history of evangelicals, Mennonites, and Germans in the Soviet Union.

Schedule of Events

March 27, 3:00 p.m.

“The Religious Policy of the Soviet State and Mennonites, 1917-1991”

Ashley Auditorium

March 27, 6:30 p.m.

“The Ethnicization of Stalinism: The ‘German Operation’ of the NKVD, 1937-1938”

Ashley Auditorium

March 29, 7:00 p.m.

“Pacifists in a Military State: Mennonites and Conscription, 1917-1941”

Seminary Chapel